Aaron Harrold Dies At Garrett Saturday; Is Buried Tuesday

Aaron Harrold, 91, life-long resident of Swan township, Noble county, died at 3:00 p. m. at Sacred Heart hospital in Garrett, where he had been a patient more than 16 months. He entered the hospital February 5, 1940, when he received a hip fracture in a fall. Mr. Harrold resided near Churubusco.

His parents were Daniel and Margaret Yarian Harrold. His wife, Mrs. Alice Claxton Harrold, died in December, 1929.

Surviving is a son, John Harrold, who lives near Garrett; one brother Daniel Harrold of Noble county; two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Cuney and Mrs. William Clingerman of Noble county, and ten grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were a daughter, Mrs. George Wappes, and a son, William Harrold.

The body was removed to the Sonday Funeral Home.

The Rev. J. A. Gump, a retired minister of the Church of the Brethren, officiated at funeral services held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock (DST) at the Sonday Funeral Home in Churubusco. Interment was made in Eel River cemetery.

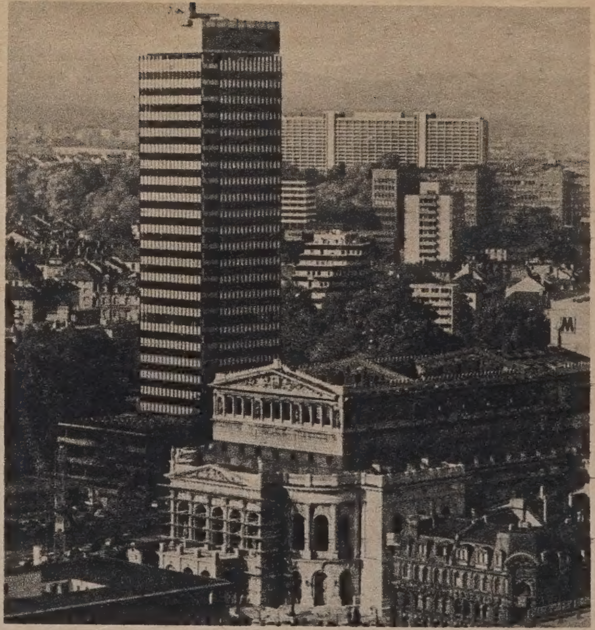
Bucharest

Modern high rise apartments are springing up in the Balta Alba district of the Romanian capital of Bucharest. As in other parts of the world, the population explosion probably is reaching its tentacles into the Balkan state.



Frankfurt

Frankfurt's historic opera house (center, foreground), burned out during World War II, gets a "face lifting." As work goes on to preserve the old, the new Frankfurt rises. Overshadowing the opera house is a new insurance company skyscraper (left). In the background is the large new building housing the German Bundesbank.

Miller. 1911.

This picture of the Miller family reunion taken in 1911, in a grove east of Milan Center, in Allen County. Those pictured were residents of Milan, Scipio and Maumee Townships, as well as parts of Michigan. The owner of this picture, K. R. (Jack) Waltke, (Tippecanoe Lake), Leesburg, is the four-year old child in the top row center being held by his father. His grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Miller Reynolds, is in the second row from the top, third woman to the right of center. His mother, Mrs. Grace Reynolds Waltke, is pictured in the third row from the top, third person from the right. Numerous descendants of the Millers still reside in this area.

EDUCATION
IS WEALTH

Wealth may seek us, but Wisdom
must be sought

Dear Pupil;

With friends about to separate,
'Tis fitting deemed and meet,
That they the parting celebrate
With little tokens sweet.

And now at closing of our school,
Before we homeward wend,
I gladly keep, observe this rule,
With you, my youthful friend.

And hence this gift I now present,
This little gem of art,
I give you.as a compliment,
And give it with my heart.

Sincerely
Your Teacher.

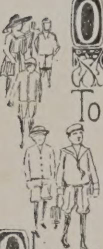
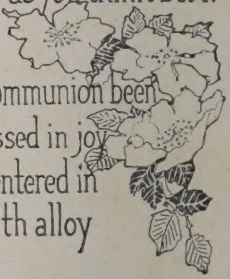
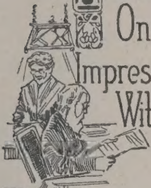
The Close of School



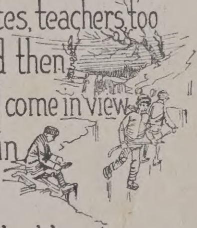
Our school days now we end awhile
To give you needed rest,
To banish care, the time beguile,
And spend as you think best.



Oh sweet has our communion been
The days have passed in joy
And nothing ill has entered in
To mar them with alloy



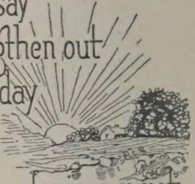
And often hence your mind will dwell
On school days past and o'er,
Impressions made will upward well,
With all their garnered store.

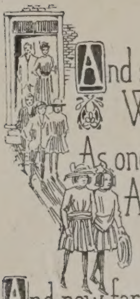


Youll think of schoolmates, teachers too
The books you studied then,
Old sports and games will come in view,
All in one round again

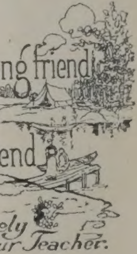
You'll think how valuable is time,
How priceless are his days,
The wealth of wisdom's heights sublime
The pleasure of her ways

And now the time has come about
The closing words to say
The shadows fall and lengthen out
And mark declining day





And soon the hum of voices sweet
Will join in merry shout,
As one another you will greet
And cry "The school is out".



And now farewell my dear young friend
I wish you rest complete
May happiness your steps attend
Until again we meet.

~Sincerely
Your Teacher.

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

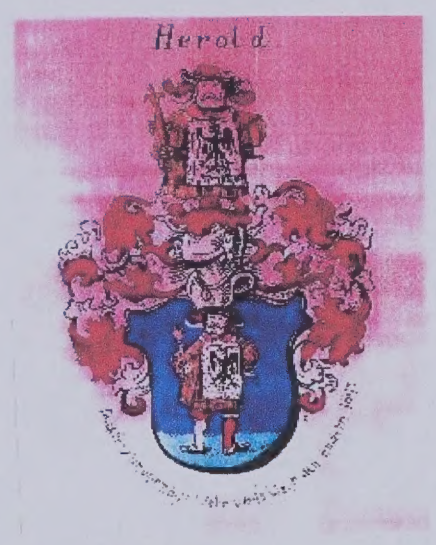
The Herrold Family Reunion Website

Greetings and Welcome from the Herrold Family!

The purpose of this website is to bring members of the Herrold Family together and to depict the history and lineage of the Herrold Family in America.



If you are looking for information on the Herrolds, you've found it. We have reunion information, photos, family history details and much, much more.

We try to update regularly and there are always new things being added. We will gladly accept any contributions of information, photos, etc. for posting on this site. We welcome one and all to enjoy being a part of the Herrold Family.

This site is dedicated to the memory of the first Herrold Family Genealogist, Dr. Charles A. Fisher (1886-1955).

BETHLEHEM CEMETERY

Readings were taken in August 1982 and updated in June 1986. Located in Section 15 of Swan Township on the south side of Swan Road 1.4 miles west of State Road 3, this cemetery was part of land owned by Peter Bricker. The church which stood to the east of the cemetery was demolished several years ago. It was named for the church in Washington County, Pennsylvania, which the Bricker, Simon, and Whonsetler families attended prior to migrating to Noble County. The earliest birthdate and deathdate engraved on stones here belong to James Warner (1787-1853). Point of beginning is at the southwest corner of the cemetery, and rows were read from north to south.

Dear Mrs Sala:

I am Lucille, daughter of Evie C. (Miller) Keller, daughter of Cora (Harned) Miller. As you can see by the start of my letter we are related. In trying to trace my family tree I have been led to Elkhart on the Harned and or Miller side.

I was told by my Mother that you might possibly know some of the birth dates, marriages, background, etc. of this family

If you know any of the answers to the questions I have I would be most interested in knowing. Is there a recording office in Court House there that might have some records or legal documents I might locate?

I think you know my sister Pauline. You see I was with my Mother while Pauline stayed with Aunt Treacy.

Here's hoping some of the above information will help You to help me in my search for my unknown family.

I will be eagerly awaiting your reply on any thing at all concerning the Miller or Harrell family.

Thank You,
Lucille Green
